Mr. Michael Collins

The Bluebook staff takes pride in dedicating the 1968 Bluebook to a teacher whom we all know and admire, Mr. Michael Collins. Enthusiastic supporter of school spirit, Mr. Collins was present at most of the sports events and social activities of the year. Through his work as Cheering K's advisor and class sponsor, he displayed a genuine interest in the students of Kenwood. We will long remember Mr. Collins as a dedicated teacher and friend to his students.

Yail,
 I've known you for quite a while and you haven't changed. Good luck with the guy who belongs to you - he's somewhere.
 Have a good summer & a good life.

FACULTY

Weston L. Dean, Principal

Principal's Message:

"Welcome to Uncertainty". This title of a commencement speech could well be the greeting given to every graduating class. Our country suffers from civil and international strife even though we live in a time of greatest technological advancement in recorded history. Why the uncertainties in your future? We have failed to make sociological gains comparable to those in our technology.

We do not know how to get along with each other.

You are leaving Kenwood better equipped physically and intellectually than any previous generation. Use what you have wisely to make this a better world because you were a part of it.

SOPHOMORES

Class of 1970

Life at Kenwood for Sophomores proved to be quite a new experience. A larger school with more responsibilities created a new way of life. Meeting new people, joining new clubs, working on special committees, competing in interscholastic sports, and participating in various activities were challenging at first. Within a few months, however, Kenwood became a regular part of their high school career.

Officers for the class of 1970 were elected during a special class meeting held in the cafeteria. Each candidate addressed the assembled group before the final vote was taken.

The highlight of the year was the Sophomore Class Party on March 2. The class danced in the cafeteria to the music of THE GIGS. Later, refreshments were served.

The Student Council served as a liaison between the students, faculty, and administration. This year, the council instituted many new programs and continued traditional ones. Among the projects which have become an annual program are the support of Kenwood's foster child, Van, the Activity Card Dance, the Christmas Dance with the Snow Queen, the food drive at Christmastime, and Council Capers. The council also continued to supervise class elections and the election of Student Council representatives and officers.

Among the new projects were the revision of the dress code, the writing of a new constitution, the running of candidates for office in the Baltimore County Regional Association of Student Councils, and the acquisition of a soda machine for student use after school. Two committees were formed, one to survey complaints from people in the Kenwood area and the other to suggest improvements within Kenwood. In April, the council held a Sadie Hawkins Dance for the benefit of Franklin Square Hospital and sponsored a Keep Kenwood Klean Week. Also, a trophy case in memory of Mr. Morton was presented to the school.

On December 16, the Student Council held a Christmas Dance with music provided by the Expressions.

The council sponsored a food drive at Christmas time in a joint effort with the Safety Club.

Only holders of Activity Cards were admitted to a dance held especially for them in October.

Linda Raines

To a very nice girl and a pretty one too. I enjoyed meeting you this year and will always remember our Snow fun class. Lots of luck in the Queen and have a great summer. Don't work too hard. Linda '68

On December 16, 1967, the Student Council held its third annual Christmas dance with music provided by the "Expressions". The highlight of the evening was the announcement of the Snow Queen and her court. The sophomore class was represented by Toni Spagnolo and Pat Batyi, while the junior class was represented by Debbie Cullison and Debbie Goldberg. Senior runner-ups for the title of Snow Queen were Kandi del Casal and Sharon Elder. Finally, the Snow Queen, who was chosen by the entire student body to reign over the evening's festivities was announced. This year, the lovely Linda Raines was the choice.

Linda was presented with a bouquet of red roses.

The Snow Queen and her Court SEATED: Linda Raines, Snow Queen. STANDING: Toni Spagnolo; Debbie Cullison; Kandi del Casal; Norman Seidel, Linda's escort; Sharon Elder; Debbie Goldberg; Pat Batyi.

The decorated gym reflected the feeling of Christmas that was in the air.

The members of the Cheering K's were always ready to promote school spirit.

Cheering K's

The Cheering K's were one of Kenwood's most active clubs throughout the year. The members of this club inspired school spirit by selling shakers, beanies, and Kenwood buttons. The Cheering K's also sponsored the annual pep rally and, of course, the cheerleaders and Bluebird who cheered the teams to victory. This club, which also sponsored transportation to important games, consistently enthused the school with spirit.

The officers were: J. Bayer; Vice-President, J. Hyman; President, D. Austin; Treasurer, D. Konopacki; Secretary.

These members were responsible for making many posters.

The advisors were Miss Yearwood and Mr. Collins.

Mr. Miller showed two members of the staff a possible idea for use in their sections.

Ron Colison, Ue Lindsay, and Leanne Riggs looked through yearbooks of the past for ideas.

Since the year 1945, the Bluebook has provided the Kenwood students with a lasting memory of each school-year. From the first day of school in September to the final deadline, the Bluebook staff of 1968 has worked to uphold this tradition. Throughout the year, pictures depicting every aspect of school life at Kenwood were taken. Under the coordinating efforts of the Editor-in-chief, Patti Gaudet, these pictures were arranged in the '68 Bluebook to present the students with a pictorial record of their year at Kenwood.

Janet Shephard, Mary Prato, Carolyn Lancaster, and Beverly Reinhart prepared supplements for mailing to last year's Seniors.

Bonnie Samonek and Kay Miller pulled pictures from the file for use in layouts

Cathy Evans cropped pictures, while Dot Tucker worked on the layouts.

Spotlight

Mrs. Fuoco,
Advisor

This year, the Spotlight staff tried something new in the way of publication. In the beginning of the year, the once-a-month issue was replaced by a twice-a-month issue. The newspaper contained news that was both helpful and interesting to the students. Club activities, as well as after-school activities, were printed in the paper. All phases of school life were covered by Spotlight reporters.

Reflections

Lawrence Duzor,
Editor-in-chief

Reflections, Kenwood's literary magazine, is a collection of poetry, prose, and essays. All writings are submitted by Kenwood students. This year, however, a section of the magazine was filled with faculty writings. In February, the club had a dance featuring the Sounds of Time. This year, Reflections was under the new direction of Mrs. Lin Smith.

Mrs. Smith,
Advisor

Members of the Executive Board, along with the editor, had the job of working with all committees.

The Art Committee designed illustrations for the pages, as well as ideas for the magazine cover.

The Selections Committee chose the writings that went into the magazine.

The Lay-out Committee organized the writings into suitable arrangements.

Quill and Scroll

Mrs. Fuoco, Advisor

Quill and Scroll was an honor society made up of deserving young journalists, who were selected by Mrs. Fuoco. Each member had done superior work on the staff of Spotlight, Bluebook, or Reflections. For the February PTA meeting, the group sponsored a showcase to familiarize people with the publication of Kenwood's newspaper, yearbook, and literary magazine.

In 1956, the Kenwood chapter of the National Honor Society received its charter. Since that time, membership in the organization has been based on the four principles of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Membership is by invitation. To become a member of this society is the highest honor that a Kenwood student can receive.

During the year, members of Honor Society offered their time and services to tutor students who desired help. At the Farewell Assembly, the society presented a deserving senior with a scholarship.

A.F.S.

The American Field Service was involved in bake sales, car washes, and Christmas card sales in order to raise money to help pay the expenses of Kenwood's foreign exchange program. Kenwood acted as host to all exchange students in Maryland in November. The students attended classes at Kenwood on Friday and then spent the weekend touring Baltimore as the guests of the AFS members. Margit Einetter spoke in an assembly on her homeland, Austria. Through its many activities, the AFS promoted lasting personal relationships and good international alliances.

At the end of this wonderful year, I would like to express my cordial thanks to Kenwood, to the administration, to the faculty, and last but not least, to the entire student body. My real feelings of gratitude are indescribable. I met warm friendliness and spontaneous hospitality everywhere I went. The memories of my stay will always be a great pleasure to me.

I personally feel that the year we spent together was a great success. I did not only receive knowledge as every ordinary student did, I also gained an understanding of you, your customs, your ideas, your culture, and your ways of living in general. I also hope that I contributed a little bit to the attitude and respect you pay to my country; only then have I fulfilled completely my mission as an exchange-student.

Though I had to part physically when my time was over; in my mind you will always be with me.

Behind the Scenes

Mr. Crusse and his classes did the carpentry work necessary for the scenery.

Joyce Dotterweich worked at painting the sky for an outdoor scene.

Before the show could go on, make-up had to be applied.

The stage crew was responsible for the changing of the set during the show.

Some of the cast paused to have their picture taken before the show.

This year, the Kenwood stage came alive with the singing and dancing of the musical "Half A Sixpence". After weeks and weeks of hard work, it was opening night and as the saying goes, "On with the show".

The Mousetrap

On February 2 and 3 of this year, the faculty presented the play The Mousetrap by Agatha Christy, in order to raise funds for the faculty scholarship program. In this murder mystery, a newly opened guest house named Monkswell Manor became the refuge for a murderer whose next victim was staying there. In the course of the play, evidence seemed to point out that any one of the people left could be a murderer, but who? It turned out to be the least likely person, Sergeant Trotter, who was neither a police detective nor a sane individual.

Mr. Sheeley gave Valerie Bowers directions for the lighting needed in the play.

At rehearsal, Miss Davidson, Mr. O'Hala, Mrs. Howard, and Mrs. Purcell ran through their lines as the characters of Mrs. Boyle, Giles and Molly Ralston, and Miss Casewell, respectfully.

This year the GAA was the largest organization in Kenwood, with a total membership of 319 girls. The main purpose of the GAA was to encourage athletic participation and school spirit. Besides the usual events, this year the GAA sponsored a project in which they sent packages to servicemen in Vietnam. The highlight for members came in May when all eligible girls went to Camp Airy in Thurmont, Maryland.

At the Halloween Party, prizes were given for the best costumes and for taking first place in various contests.

During seventh period, members of the foods committee prepared for the tea after school.

It took the girls of the decorating committee several hours to set-up and decorate the tree, but the results were worthwhile.

All members of the GAA were invited to attend the Foods Party, at which outstanding senior members were presented with service pins.

Student Aides

The students pictured here are only a few of our many student aides. Kenwood students volunteered willingly to fill vacancies for these jobs. Before, during, and after school, time was given up by each aide. By relieving the departments of minor jobs, student aides have become an essential part of Kenwood.

Nurses' aides checked students in and out of the Health Suite.

Office aides were able to learn how an office is run.

By working in the office, typists were able to gain working experience.

Audio visual aides supplied teachers with films, projectors, and other needed materials.

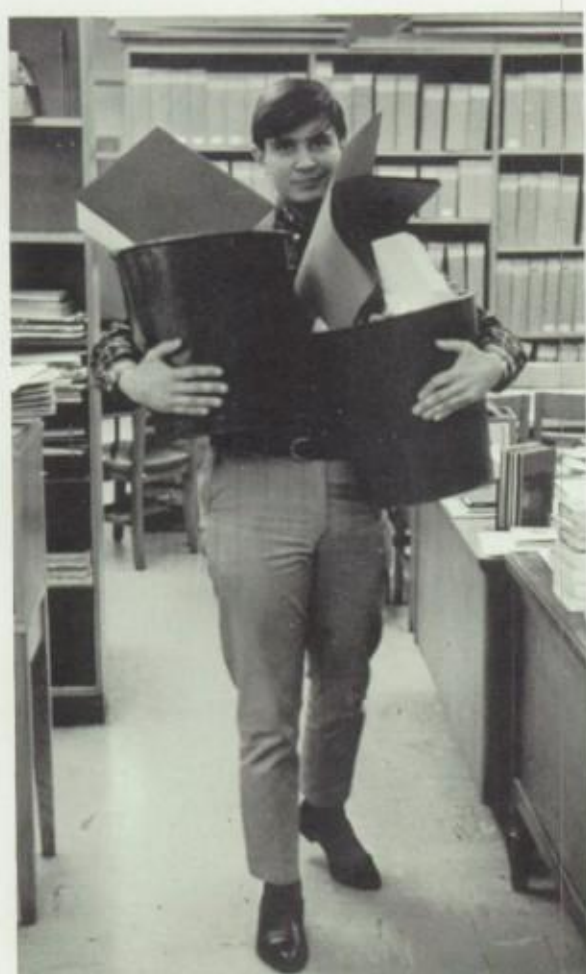

Books were shelved and catalogued by the library aides.

Towel aides had towels stacked and available for instant use.

Library aides made books ready for students to check out.

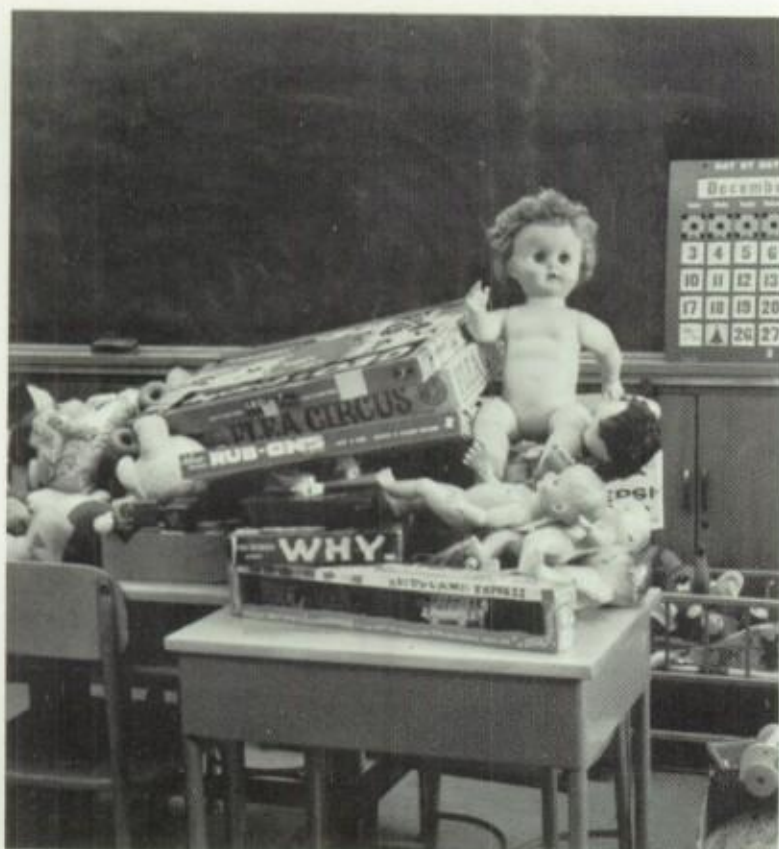

Keeping the library in good working condition was another job of library aides.

School store aides sold supplies, book covers, and paperback novels to students.

Many office aides ran off mimeograph copies for teachers, as well as for the administration.

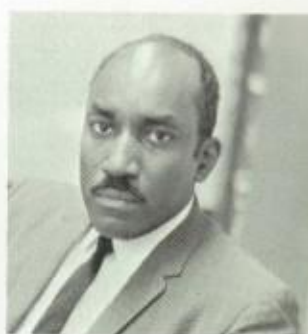

Many toys were collected during the Christmas season.

Safety Club

The Safety First Club was very busy this year maintaining Kenwood's reputation as one of the safest high schools. The members of this club were responsible for the registration of all student vehicles on the parking lots. Majorettes

This year, the Majorettes, under the leadership of Sharon Elder, became the first group in Baltimore County to twirl hoops in routines. The ten members of the group performed to the sound of the KHS Band and participated in many activities along with the band. Besides learning the routines by which they twirled their batons and hoops, each girl was responsible for making her own uniform.

On November 1, for the first time in KHS history, the Junior Class assembled to vote on their class choices. On Friday, November 3, the second annual Junior Class Party was held. Music was provided by the Chapter VI. A fall theme was carried out in the decorations as well as the refreshments, which included cider and donuts.

Due to a change in the styles of rings, sizing was delayed until January. However, Juniors still received their rings early in the spring. Added to the excitement of receiving the rings was the Junior Ball held on May 4.

As the fun, fulfillment, and frustrations of another year came to an end, they all looked forward to being Seniors in the fall.

Class of '68

*In the past, we have had a light which flickered,
In the present, we have a light which flames,
And in the future, there will be a light which shines over all.*
—Sir Winston Churchill

KHS's 1968 Senior Class spent their last year of high school actively participating in the many school activities of the year. Senior girls and boys served their school faithfully through the many clubs and organizations at Kenwood. The members of the class of '68 learned of the many rewards of being upperclassmen during an exciting year of games, spirit, dances, elections, term papers, and all those factors which made their senior year memorable. There were disappointments such as the games Kenwood lost and there were triumphs such as winning the County Soccer Championship. Then, finally, there was Senior Day, name cards and graduation announcements, the last days of the senior countdown, and commencement. The Senior Class ended their last year of high school with a profitable year behind them; and the future, they had been planning for throughout their years at Kenwood, ahead of them.

Most Studious

Edie Grabowski's outstanding academic achievements made her the senior class's choice for Most Studious girl. Edie earned straight A's three times at Kenwood. She attended a biochemistry course at Notre Dame on Saturdays and during her junior year, she participated in a special science seminar. Edie also acted as president of the National Honor Society in her senior year. She planned to enter Notre Dame College and pursue a career in chemical science.

Kirk Dancy earned his title, Most Studious boy, through his scholastic abilities. Kirk earned an average of B or B plus every term at Kenwood. He received a letter of commendation for his score on the National Merit Scholarship examination. Kirk found enough time to maintain his grade average even though he played organ in a band. We all admired Kirk's efforts and achievements during his years at Kenwood.

Most Talented

Joyce Dotterweich's art talent added much to Kenwood and to Joyce's reputation. She designed and painted scenery for the musical, "Half a Sixpence." She also designed and arranged Gallery '68. Joyce does art work for Senator Pine and has sold numerous pieces of art to others. She does mainly oil portraits and she had a showcase of her work on display in her senior year. Joyce plans to attend the Maryland Institute of Art to develop that talent which made her the Most Talented senior girl.

By playing the lead in the school musical, "Half a Sixpence", Darryl Matarozza became well-known as the senior class's Most Talented boy. He also performed in "Oliver" in his junior year. Darryl played guitar and sang in one of the most popular bands in the community, the "Gigs". Also an excellent art student, Darryl entered projects in the County Art Show. Through his achievements in and out of Kenwood, Darryl has well-earned his title, Most Talented boy.

Most Friendly

Pam McCormick had that certain something, a charming smile and a vibrant personality, which made her a friend to everyone she met. Pam was an active Kenwoodite during her three years at KHS. She was a member of the GAA, Cheering K's, Reflections Staff, and the girls' Varsity Lacrosse team. Her biggest interest at Kenwood was cheerleading. Being captain of JV in her junior year gave her the skill to make varsity in her senior year. Pam looked forward to majoring in art and physical education in college and eventually becoming a physical education teacher.

Doug Caraway's friendliness was contagious. Wherever Doug was, people were inclined to be smiling. Not only did his friendliness add to his popularity, but his sense of humor made the day brighter for everyone. We all remember Doug for his smiles and witty remarks.

Most Athletic

Lois Poswiatowski, better known to most of us as "Pos", added much to Kenwood's sports program. Lois played on the JV hockey team and the Varsity basketball team when she was a sophomore. She returned to play on three varsity sports: hockey, basketball, and softball in her junior and senior years. Also a member of the GAA for three years, Lois encouraged school and team spirit and deserved to be called Most Athletic by her graduating class.

Irvin Johnson was also an asset to KHS's sports success. He was a member of the varsity wrestling team for three years. Also a member of the gymnastics team for two years, Irvin changed over to football in his senior year. He was a member of the varsity outdoor track team and the Varsity K Club for three years. An active supporter of Kenwood, Irvin earned his place as Most Athletic boy.

Best All Around

Sharon Elder's many achievements during her years at Kenwood qualified her to be chosen Best All Around. Sharon was vice-president of the senior class, captain of the majorettes, and a Student Council representative. She represented Kenwood in the County Council Capers in her junior and senior years, with her baton twirling talent. Also a finalist in the "Miss Teen-age Baltimore" pageant, runner-up in the "Miss High School of Baltimore" talent contest, and senior representative in Kenwood's Snow Queen Court, Sharon was an excellent choice for Best All Around.

Ken Raybuck was on the Debate team during his three years at Kenwood, and in his senior year alone, he won three speaking awards. We will all remember Ken for the fine job he did as one of the Masters of Ceremony at the Council Capers talent show. Ken's special morning announcements livened the morning on many occasions. His great sense of humor and his amiable personality combined with his academic abilities to make him the Best All Around boy in the senior class.

Most Likely To Succeed

Kitty Einetter, our foreign exchange student, displayed all those qualities which combine to make one Most Likely To Succeed. She was a member of the American Field Service and the Girls' Athletic Association. Even though Kitty had many other adjustments to make at Kenwood, she managed to become a member of the National Honor Society. Kitty's friendliness and diversified abilities combined to make her the senior class choice as the girl Most Likely to Succeed.

Norman Seidel had a rare combination of qualities which made him the senior class choice for the boy Most Likely To Succeed. Norman was a member of the National Honor Society during his two years at KHS. He played on three varsity sports: football, basketball, and baseball. Norman's scholastic and athletic abilities combined with his friendly personality made him one of our senior class favorites.

"The Miracle Worker"

On March 29 and 30 the Drama Department, under the direction of Mr. Sheely, sponsored the play, The Miracle Worker, by William Gibson. The play portrays the real life story of Helen Keller, who was deaf and dumb, as a young girl but overcame her handicap with the help of her brilliant teacher, Anne Sullivan.

Sophomore Party

The class of 1970 held its Sophomore Party on March 2. Entertainment was provided by a popular singing group, the Gigs. Refreshments included cake, sodas, pretzels and potato chips.

Refreshments were served to all that attended the party.

Jim Driggers, Pat Batyi, Dawn Wallace, and Michelle Cianos, sophomore class officers, received first taste of the class cake.

Mrs. Sharon Sticha, Miss Betty Schmidt, and Mrs. Dorothy Ryan, along with class officers, helped to make the party a success.

"Enchanted Gardens"

The Junior Ball was held on May 4, 1968. A flowered archway greeted Juniors, which led to the "Enchanted Gardens" in the gymnasium. Here they danced to the music provided by the Clubmen.

For the first time, round tables were introduced to the Junior Ball which added a more cozy atmosphere to the affair. Each table held a vase with a long-stemmed yellow rose and blue carnation, the class flowers. Refreshments of cake and punch were served.

Senior

All the days of preparing lesson plans and the apprehension of running the school for an entire day were part of the 18-year tradition of Senior Day. This year's Senior Day, March 1, arrived with a blanket of snow covering Baltimore.

Senior teachers, after an extra hour of sleep, were ready to meet the challenges presented to them by the underclassmen; consequently, they found that teaching was not as easy as it looked. However, during free periods, Seniors still had the faculty room, cafeteria and office to rest their weary feet.

Miss Ball, coordinator, described Senior Day as "a learning experience and not one of those 'wasted days.' Teachers were cooperative and there was more response from the underclassmen than in previous years."

Ellen Baker replaced Mr. Dean, as principal, on Senior Day.

Mr. Doub was replaced by Sharon Elder.

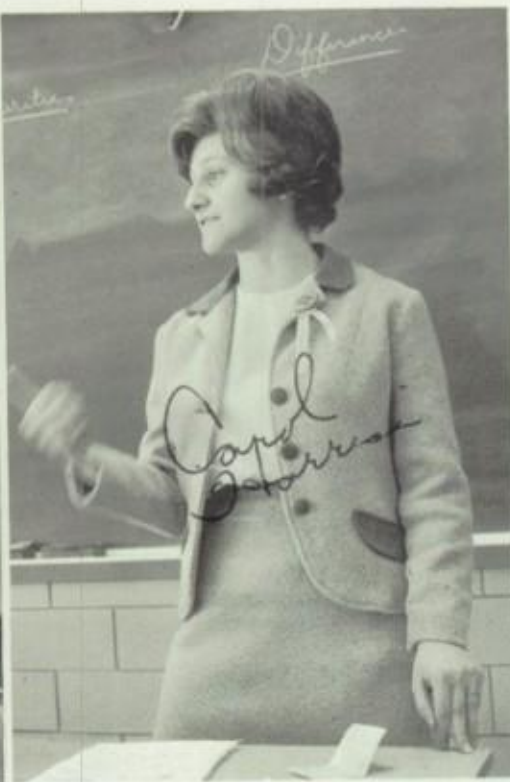

Jimmy Greenwood took the role of Mr. Burgemeister.

Students came to Janet Shephard and Judy Jones with their problems, who posed as guidance counselors.

Day "68"

Senior Party

Gregg Wisnieski was a girl watcher at the Senior Party.

On the evening of March 1, the second Senior Class Party was held. Seniors and their guests danced to music provided by the Noblemen of Towson.

As a climax to Senior Day, the party marked another mile-stone for the Class of 1968.

Larry Friedel and Janelle Glancy enjoy the music of The Noblemen.

Jim Greenwood, Mrs. Sherri Miller, Mr. Ron Abe, and Laurel MacGregor socialize at the party.

"Under the

"Sub Stellas Romanas", the Senior Prom was held on May 18, 1968. Feen Iula's Orchestra provided music for the affair.

As Seniors arrived they were greeted by two flaming torches, guards decked out in togas, and a giant canopy. The Roman theme was carried into the cafeteria and upstairs in the gymnasium.

The highlight of the evening was the traditional ring dance began at 10 o'clock. All of this and more added the appropriate atmosphere for a "Night Under Roman Stars."

Seniors and their guests were greeted by two giant torches as they entered the prom.

Seniors passed through the traditional receiving line before entering "Sub Stellas Romanas."

Jim Jacobs and Barbara Cook passed through the flowered archway as they entered the Roman gardens.

Roman Stars"

Seniors continued dancing as others prepared to go through the traditional ring.

Linda Birchfield and Bud Warner pause by the Roman guards before leaving "Sub Stellas Romanas."

Farewell!

On the evening of May 25, seniors and their parents met in the auditorium to receive awards. Service pins, Silver K's, Gold K's, and 27 scholarships were awarded by area organizations. After the awards, for the first time, seniors were able to pick up their yearbooks.

Notice the different expressions of appreciation by the recipients of the highest award given by KHS, the Gold K.

The graduating class presented our foreign exchange student, Kitty Einetter, with a farewell gift.

The Bayaderes sang the class song, "Moments to Remember."

Jim Greenwood, class president, said his final farewell to the Class of '68 and KHS.

The Class of '68 leaves KHS after another memorable occasion.

Graduation '68'

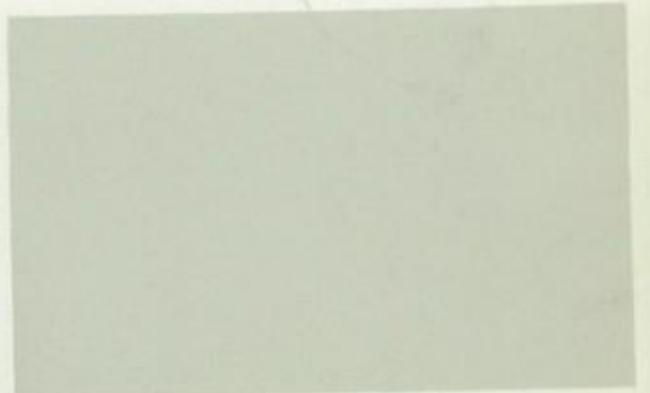

Maureen Startt contemplates . . . Graduation!

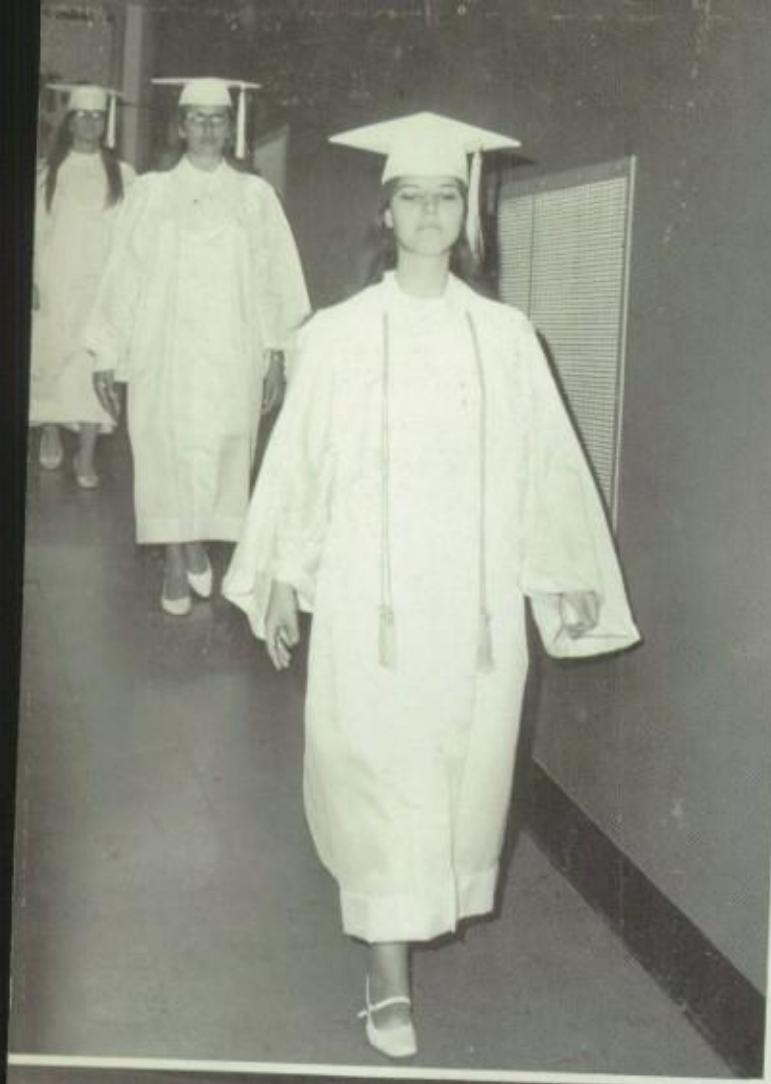

On June 4 and 5, the 759 Seniors assembled in the KHS auditorium for the last time to receive diplomas. Speeches were given before diplomas were awarded. The theme was KNOW THYSELF: Initiation, Preparation, and Speculation of the future.

Ken Raybuck reviewed his speech, KNOW THYSELF: Speculation.

After twelve years of hard work, Vicki Serson cherishes her diploma at last.

Go Gail who was the best torking girl in my class also in the school. God
